

FAQ: Service Year + ASU Course: National Service and American Democracy

Who can take this course audience?

Anyone interested is able to take this course! This class will be available through ASU's Global Freshman Academy, which makes first year college courses available to anyone around the world. We highly encourage currently serving corps members to take this course, and for those that are not serving, we hope this motivates them to explore a service year as an option for their future. Alums, program staff, and any interested person are also welcome to join!

How do I sign up?

You can sign up at this link - <https://cpp.ea.asu.edu/login>. For new registrants, click "Sign Up" and then enter your name and email to begin the registration process.

What are different tracks for this course? And cost?

To earn academic credit for this course, click Pursue Credit and pay the $25 credit eligibility fee. With a final grade of "C" or higher, you can pay the $400 tuition (within a year of course completion) to earn college credit. Your Segal Education Awards can be used to pay this course tuition. If you do not want academic credit, you can audit this course for free!

Can I see the course content before I sign up?

You can see the course syllabus here and the course schedule here.

A BETTER YOU. A GREATER US.

When is this class being offered?

We expect this class to be offered 2-3 times each year – likely a spring, summer, and fall session. Go to <https://serviceyear.org/asu/> for updated dates for each session.

Can I use the Eli Segal Education Award?

Yes! You can use your Eli Segal Education Award to cover the cost of tuition. To earn academic credit for this course, click Pursue Credit and pay the $25 credit eligibility fee. With a final grade of “C” or higher, you can pay the $400 tuition (within a year of course completion) to earn college credit. Please make sure to indicate that you plan to use the Eli Segal Education Award when you sign up. Note – you cannot use your Segal Award for the $25 credit eligibility fee.

Can I transfer the credit from ASU to another university?

Yes, you can! It is up to you to work with your university to understand their policies on accepting transferred credit.

What internet speed is needed for this class?

We advise that you have a strong internet connection, 200kb/s upload speed or higher in general. Dial-up and satellite connections are not supported. You can test your internet speed at <https://fast.com/>.

Does this class accommodate for different learners and previous education backgrounds?

Anyone is welcome to take this course, and there is no prerequisite to join. This class is taught at a freshman level college course, so learners will need to be prepared for that level of rigor. We hope the different options of auditing the class or taking to pursue for credit will accommodate for many different education needs and interests.

If you have accessibility needs, please see <https://www.asu.edu/accessibility/> to learn more information.
